1. How does Philip's obedience to the Spirit in Acts 8:26-29 challenge our willingness to follow God's leading in unexpected ways?
2. What does the Ethiopian eunuch's desire to understand Scripture reveal about the importance of seeking clarity in our faith?
3. In what ways can we help others understand the Bible, as Philip did for the eunuch?
4. Why do you think the eunuch responded so quickly and decisively to the opportunity for baptism?
5. How does the eunuch's baptism illustrate the connection between faith, worship, and obedience?
6. What can we learn from Philip's immediate action to share the good news of Jesus, starting with the eunuch's current understanding of Scripture?
7. How might we cultivate the same joy the eunuch experienced after his baptism?
8. How does the story of Philip and the eunuch encourage us to see baptism as both a personal declaration and a public act of worship?
